ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

North Seattle College acknowledges that we occupy the lands of the Coast Salish peoples, the descendants of the First peoples of this region—a people whose cultures endure and are valued. Without this land and these cultures, we would not have access to this gathering, dialogue, and learning space. We take this moment to honor and thank the original caretakers of this land, their ancestors, and their descendants who are still here. We encourage participants here today to consider our responsibilities as we stand in solidarity with the sovereignty, cultural heritage, and lives of Native, Indigenous, and First Nation Peoples.

LABOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

We also pause to recognize and acknowledge the labor that created the United States and from which we all benefit. We remember that our nation is built on the labor of enslaved people who were forcibly brought to the U.S. from the African continent and we recognize the continued contribution of their survivors. We acknowledge immigrant labor and recognize that voluntary, forced, and prison labor contribute to the building and on-going maintenance of our nation. We acknowledge all unpaid care-giving labor. Additionally, we acknowledge the critical importance of the work towards racial equity that continues across this country, and the world, in response to racial injustice and generations of structural racism against BIPOC communities.

WHERE WE STAND:

Resolutions and statements of where we stand as an institution in regard to important social issues.

Hello From:

NSC President Dr. Chemene Crawford

Welcome to the 2022-2023 academic year at North Seattle College! We are incredibly pleased that you have chosen North to begin or continue your pursuit of higher education and a career. At North, you will find a community that is passionate about education and promotes civic engagement. As a student, you will receive direct access to more than 300 faculty and your choice of 33 associate and bachelor's degree programs. You will also benefit from:

- Small class sizes
- Access to leading-edge labs and equipment
- Free tutoring, advising, career counseling, and disability services
- Hands-on research opportunities and internships

As this handbook outlines, we offer a wide variety of resources that can ease your journey toward success. Please make yourself at home, get to know your classmates and North employees, and become familiar with our learning environment. Thank you for choosing North and best wishes for a successful academic year!

Our Mission

Our School

Established in 1970, North Seattle College provides learning opportunities for a diverse group of more than 14,000 students each year. North is the starting point for many students who transfer to top universities across the country. Strong academic preparation and advising services, small classes, an innovative integrated studies program, broad e-learning options, and a variety of partnerships with four-year schools contribute to student success. The college also offers five Bachelor of Applied Science degrees – Accounting with an International focus, Application Development, Early Childhood Education, International Business, and Residential & Commercial Property Management – and all-in-the-evening Associate of Arts and Associate in Business degree programs. In addition, North is launching the new Bachelor of Science in Computer Science degree program this fall.

TRANSFER OF CREDITS

A transfer credit evaluation is necessary if:

1. You plan to earn a degree, certificate, or diploma at North (only degree or certificate-seeking students should apply for an official credit evaluation) and
2. You have taken credits at another college or university that may apply to your current program at North.

To qualify for an evaluation of incoming credits, you must be a new student enrolled at the college for the current or upcoming quarter, or a returning student who has been actively enrolled at North Seattle College in the past four years.

Your transcripts will only be evaluated toward ONE program of study.

When your transcripts are received, there will be an Advising Note in ctcLink.

Once your transcripts are received, submit the application for evaluation of incoming credits.

Verify that your transcripts have been received before submitting the application.

LACTATION SPACE

North Seattle College has a Mamava Pod that is open to all parents on campus.

The 4 foot by 8 foot nursing pod has 2 seats, a table, a lockable door, a mirror, and an outlet for an electric pump. The Mamava Pod is located on the north side of the HSSR building on the second floor (Second-floor entrance of the Health Sciences and Student Resources (HSSR) Building).

CAMPUS RESOURCES

LIBRARY

North's library offers a wide range of resource materials and services to students. Librarians help students take full advantage of the library's research databases, our print, audio-visual, and digital materials, and online sources. They also provide workshops and individual research consultations, and teach credit-bearing courses about information evaluation, research skills, and other essentials of academic success.

Off campus? No problem. Use our research databases and topic guides from off campus. You may call or email us with a question, or use Ask WA, our 24/7 chat reference service. Visit our website and join us on Facebook or Twitter for news of our special exhibits and events.

Student Media Center

The Student Media Center (SMC) offers hybrid services, including limited in-person hours on campus. The temporary SMC is located on the 3rd floor of the College Center, CC3360. The space includes access for students to desktop computers, printing, scanning, workspace, audio and video equipment, media software, and material supplies (e.g. for posters).

CAMPUS RESOURCES

ROY FLORES WELLNESS CENTER

In support of the College's mission, vision and values the Roy Flores Wellness Center promotes a lifelong commitment to wellness by providing a safe environment for our diverse populations of students, staff, faculty and the community with access to affordable, high-quality fitness and wellness activities.

Services include:

Student Complaints

The Student Complaint Procedure includes informal and formal complaints by a student against an employee of the college or another student. This procedure is designed to protect all individuals involved. The first step for students is to contact the student complaints officer, who will review/discuss the complaint, provide students with strategies to resolve the complaint, and guide students through the informal and formal complaint submission process.

There are two processes to resolve complaints:

1. Informal
2. Formal

Informal Process

1. If a student has a complaint, first talk directly with the college employee or faculty member
2. If this does not provide a satisfactory result, the next step is to discuss the complaint with the employee's immediate supervisor or the Dean.

Student Conduct

It is the responsibility of the student to be aware of the Student Conduct Code, and participate positively at North Seattle College.

For additional information, please review the Student Conduct Policy & Procedures.

Student Misconduct

Misconduct is irresponsible behavior that negatively affects the college's educational mission and is fully defined in WAC 132F-121-110 (see web address above).

Examples of misconduct:

1. Discriminatory conduct
2. Sexual misconduct
3. Harassment
4. Academic dishonesty
5. Intentional falsification of statements and/or filing false charges against the college or members of the college

Disciplinary Actions

Examples of disciplinary actions:

1. Warning
2. Reprimand
3. Probation
4. Suspension from activities
5. Suspension of enrollment
6. Expulsion
7. Grade Change

Student Complaints

Want to submit a complaint?

Formal Process

1. Filing the complaint: To be considered under the formal process, a complaint must be filed via the Maxient system through the link above.
2. The Complaints Officer will review the complaint to determine if it qualifies for the formal process. If the Complaints Officer determines that the complaint does qualify as such, the complaint officer will send a copy of the formal complaint to the respondent and supervisor. The respondent is required to reply in writing to the Complaints Officer and the respondent's supervisor within 10 working days of the formal complaint.
3. After review, the Complaints Officer will forward the respondent's written reply to the student. If the student finds the response is unsatisfactory, the student may submit written notice via email of their dissatisfaction to the complaint officer within five working days of receipt of the notice.
4. Upon receipt of the student's notice that the response is unsatisfactory, the Complaints Officer will schedule a conference in person or via video conferencing. This conference will include the student, the respondent and the respondent's supervisor. It will be held within the next 10 working days, or as soon thereafter as feasible. The intent of this conference is to reach a resolution. The Complaints Officer will provide a written summary to all attendees.
5. If the student believes the complaint has not been resolved satisfactorily, the student may request action from the appropriate vice president. The student can file an appeal within five working days with the Complaints Officer, who will forward it to the vice president within five working days for review. This administrator shall review the complaint and documentation and render a written decision. The administrator may accept, reject or modify any of the previous action(s) in the matter, and/ or take other actions(s). This decision of the reviewing administrator shall be the final decision of the district on that complaint, and shall be served in writing to the student complainant and others deemed appropriate.

Grade Complaints

Want to submit a complaint?

Formal Process

A student may formally grieve only the final grade received in a course. A formal grade complaint must be filed no later than the last day of the quarter that follows the quarter that the disputed grade was received. The exception to this is that a complaint regarding a Spring Quarter grade may be filed through the last day of the following Fall Quarter. The formal grade complaint process will follow the same timelines as the formal complaint process.

A complaint must include all supporting documentation indicating grade received, together with (a) the reason for the complaint, specifying as completely and as accurately as possible, (b) all pertinent performance scores and attendance data and (c) a copy of the course syllabus.

Title IV: Consumer Protection Student Complaint Process

The Higher Education Act (HEA) prohibits an institution of higher education from engaging in a “substantial misrepresentation of the nature of its educational program, its financial charges, or the employability of its graduates.” 20 U.S.C. §1094(c)(3)(A).

Further, each state must have “a process to review and appropriately act on complaints concerning the institution including enforcing applicable state laws.” 34 C.F.R. § 600.9. The Washington State Board for Community and Technical Colleges (SBCTC) maintains a process to investigate complaints of this nature brought by community and technical college students in the state of Washington. For information, contact SBCTC Student Services, PO Box 42495, Olympia, WA 98504-2495, Tel: 360-704-4315 or visit sbctc.edu

A complaint must include all supporting documentation indicating grade received, together with (a) the reason for the complaint, specifying as completely and as accurately as possible, (b) all pertinent performance scores and attendance data and (c) a copy of the course syllabus.

VA GI Bill Feedback System

This System allows recipients of VA educational benefits to submit complaints against educational institutions or employers they believe have acted erroneously, deceptively, with misleading recruiting practices, or in some other way have failed to follow the Principles of Excellence.

Student Misconduct

Want to report a misconduct?

Formal Process

Seattle Colleges utilizes Maxient software to manage complaints and reporting. Through Maxient, we are able to use its centralized reporting and recordkeeping features to ensure concerns brought forward by staff, faculty and students are addressed in a timely fashion. Maxient reporting forms can be used for issues including discrimination or harassment, care and concern referrals, and student conduct. Depending on the nature of your complaint, please use the following link above.

Please be aware that these forms are not to be used in an emergency. If this is an emergency, please call your campus security or 911. Additionally, the filing of a report does not constitute filing an official police report.

Any member of the college community may file a student conduct complaint against any student when they believe a violation has been committed.

Student Absence for Reasons of Faith or Conscience

Seattle Colleges will grant reasonable accommodation so that students who are absent for reasons of faith or conscience, or for an organized activity conducted under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or religious organization will not have their grades or other learning opportunities from the class be negatively affected. Such absences must be requested in writing within the first two weeks of the quarter. Faculty must include the approved language references this policy in their syllabi. This policy and the associated procedure will be posted on the institutional website. Students who have concerns about approval or a grade impact may utilize the student grievance procedure for concerns not directly related to grades, or to the grade appeal process in cases impacting a final grade (WAC 132F-121-090).

Your Privacy: FERPA—Notification of Rights

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. Information about Seattle College students is collected, maintained, and used to meet the college's educational objectives. Students are protected against improper disclosure of their records. These rights begin the first day of class and extend to all former students.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the College receives a request for access.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.
3. The right to provide written consent before the College discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA.
