

Step by Step Guide – Applying for Admission to North Seattle College

Who Needs to Apply?

However, if you participated in Running Start or CHS at another college, you will need to complete this process and apply for admission to North Seattle.

What Happens Next?

After the end of the application period, you’ll receive your student ID number (ctcLink ID number) via email. This will be a 9-digit number, likely beginning with 203. Be sure to write this down. You’ll need this later to sign up for class. This step only admits you to the college. If you don’t receive your number in a few days, be sure to check your junk folder OR log back into your application and the number should be on the top of the screen.

NOTE: This process admits you to be a student of North Seattle College. It doesn’t sign you up for your College in the High School course. That will happen later; your teacher will help you through the process.
